

Mixed Media Marketing is a Digital Marketing and WordPress focused agency based in Queenstown, New Zealand. It was launched in 2017 by Daniel McClure, a marketing technologist with over 10 years of professional experience, and already serves clients across several continents.

What Clients Say...

"Mixed Media Marketing were the first company to offer me affordable solutions. Super quick and efficient, Dan went above and beyond what was asked of him, very personable to work with and a positive "can do" attitude. So stoked with the results and will be continuing to work with Mixed Media Marketing going forward for sure. Cannot recommend highly enough."
